

You are invited to a

97.5 kemet fm HEALTH PARTY

Positive vibes for well-being and mental health in Nottingham's black and urban communities

Broadcasting live from Nottinghamshire Healthcare NHS Trust Conference Room 1, Duncan Macmillan House, Porchester Road, Nottingham NG3 6AA

Friday 30th
Nov 2012
10am-2pm

YOUR FREE TICKET INCLUDES:

Welcome and hosting by TV and radio presenters, Trish Adudu and Christine Belle Keynote by Professor Mike Cooke, Chief Executive of Nottinghamshire Healthcare Presentations by Professor Chris Packham, Dr Pat Williams and Patrick Vernon OBE
The Power of Patient Experience – stories from the black community
Quiz, competition and music from 97.5 kemet fm Caribbean lunch and feel-goody bag

BOOKING ESSENTIAL:

Email: events@brightideasnottingham.co.uk

Tel: 0115 837 9474 Twitter: #KemetFMHealthParty

Please register your interest by emailing the following details: name, email address, daytime telephone number, organisation / group (if applicable), position (if applicable), dietary requirements, access requirements.

Health Party numbers are capped
A high proportion of tickets will be reserved for community members and the community and voluntary sector. Statutory sector places are limited.